The Abinger Forest Riding Club aims to provide useful equine activities, such as instructional rallies, club competitions, and the opportunity to compete in teams, for all its members, as well as social activities for everyone. The cost of membership and rallies is subsidised by fund raisers, organised by the same minority group of volunteers. It is therefore felt that a small amount of help and involvement should become a condition of the limited membership to this club. If a member is unable to help when needed, the help of family/friend could be volunteered on his/her behalf.
